On June 15, 2025, Jennifer Wilson traveled from Bangkok to attend the International AI Summit held in San Francisco, California. During the conference, she presented a paper titled “Bridging Cultures Through Language Models” which received praise from experts like Dr. Alan Chen and Professor Maria Gonzales. Her team at InnovateTech used advanced NLP tools to analyze multilingual documents and extract key insights, including phone numbers like +66 892345678 and email addresses such as jennifer.w@innotech.ai. Jennifer plans to follow up with a field study in Tokyo next month to expand the research. The summit concluded with a networking dinner at the Golden Gate Convention Center.
